4. PORT FEES4.1 Harbour call fee

The port call fee is the ship's payment for the use of the fairway and is paid for each port call in the port district. The port call fee is collected by the public port authority according to the rates in force at any given time.

4.2 Berth Rental

Quay charter is the ship's payment for the use of quays owned or managed by Westport. The vessel's mooring time is calculated from the time the vessel docks and until it leaves the quay, including the time spent on delaying to a new quay. Westport reserves the right to instruct vessels to delay to other quay areas at their own cost and risk. Berth rent is collected by the ship's agent or clerk on invoice from Westport.

Vessel	Unit	Price
Vessels under 70 meters	Per day	5825,-
Vessel 70-150 meters	Per day	8321,-
Vessels over 150 meters	Per day	12507,-

The minimum fee amount is NOK 5825 per day.

4.3 ISPS-vederlag

At security level 1, ISPS fees of 30% of the quay rent are invoiced.

4.4 Remuneration for goods

Westport AS has stipulated that all goods transported through our port facilities shall be charged with goods charges. The consideration is calculated according to the weight of the goods in metric tons (M/T).

Freight charges are collected by the shipping company, or the vessel's agent or freight forwarder, following an invoice from Westport. The company or its agent is responsible for providing Westport with a copy of the vessel's manifest or cargo list with the necessary information about the consignee/shipper and the dimensions and weight of the cargo.

Westport AS may require that cargo dues for goods is paid in advance for unloading or loading of the vessel. Westport reserves the right to take necessary action against the Captain of the Vessel, the Vessel's agent or Charterer to ensure correct information regarding the calculation basis for the Goods Consideration.

Varetype	Unit	Price
Cargo dues	Pr M/T	47,3
Transshipment fees	Pr M/T	47,3
Cargo dues car	Per car	133,-

4.5 Storage of goods

Storage of all types of goods on Westport's premises is only permitted at the agreed place and with prior permission from Westport.

If the agreed storage period cannot be extended, stored goods must be moved as soon as possible at the end of the current lease agreement. Goods that are stored without prior agreement with Westport or that are stored beyond the agreed storage time, may be moved and stored elsewhere at the expense of the goods owner/warehouse tenant. If such goods are not collected within 9 months, Westport can sell the goods at public auction, or after regular advertising.

Westport may sell or dispose of such goods within 9 months if;

- (i) the value of the goods does not cover incurred expenses
- (ii) the goods are perishable, or
- (iii) may cause or contribute to injury.

Westport may, on the basis of its own assessment, improve the packing or possibly repackage such goods at the expense and risk of the goods owner/warehouse tenant.

Westport does not, without further agreement, accept any form of responsibility or obligation for goods stored indoors, on quay areas or in open storage areas.

Goods that are left behind/temporarily stored at quay areas belonging to Westport will be charged as follows:

Between 2 days and 30 days	Per m ² per day	27,5
Beyond 30 days	Per m ² per day	408,-

Long-term storage outside the quay area is specifically agreed.

4.6 Special rules for operations within Stavanger and Sola Port District

Special rules for operations within Stavanger and Sola Port District may in some cases also apply to operations related to Westport's port facilities.
